Dear Ron,

How are you doing? I'm doing well these days. It's been a year since I left America. Can you believe it? Time flies so fast. How is your life after I left Seattle*? I had many wonderful experiences (①) my stay. I miss everyone in Seattle. ②[ア to you イ told ウ me エ my family オ say hello カ to].

Do you remember the park we went to last summer called Mount Rainier National Park*? I enjoyed the many beautiful flowers and the July 4th celebrations* there. Do you remember when we arrived there, it started to rain? Before we left home, your mother told us to take umbrellas, but we didn't listen to ③her. She was right, wasn't she? Even though it was raining, there were a lot of visitors enjoying the parades, live music and fireworks*. We couldn't enjoy ④watch the fireworks because (⑤).

I heard there are many kinds of beautiful flowers for each season at the park. So I want to visit it again in a different season. It is the most beautiful place on earth. (⑥) season is the best to visit it?

By the way*, you said you will be coming to Kyoto with your family next month. I know this will be your first time to come to Japan. In Kyoto, there are many shrines and temples to visit and lots of food to eat. I recommend* going to Kiyomizu Temple and Gion. You can feel the history and enjoy many kinds of Japanese restaurants there. If you stay for more than two days, you should choose a hotel near Kyoto Station because it is convenient* if you want to go around the city. I'm sure that you will have a wonderful time in Kyoto. These days, I show visitors the sights* of Kyoto City as a volunteer when I'm free. When you come to Kyoto, I can show you around the city. I'd like to work as a tour guide in the future, but my mother says that I should be an English teacher when I get older because I studied abroad for a year. I like to learn new languages, but I'm not interested (㉦) teaching.

I will finish high school in a year. After that, I want to go back to Seattle to study tourism*. When you come to see me here in Kyoto, I want to ask you about the system of American universities. I'm looking forward to seeing you soon.

Anna

放送中メモを取ってもかまいません。

Hello, my name is Kaori. I am 15 years old. Today, I would like to talk about my hobbies. They are watching movies and playing basketball.

I like to watch movies on weekends. My favorite movie is "The Sound of Music". It is the story of the Trapp family. I think it is one of the most popular movies in the world. Three years ago, I watched it with my family for the first time on TV. I have watched it 10 more times since then. I like it because the songs in the movie are very beautiful. If you have time, try to go to the video store and rent it.

I also like to play basketball. I have belonged to the basketball team since I was 13 years old. It is hard for me to practice every day but I still enjoy basketball with my teammates.

3. これから放送される英文を聞き、それぞれに対する答えとして最も適当なものを、次の(ア)～(エ)より1つ選び、記号で答えなさい。英文と質問は2度読まれます。放送中メモをとってもかまいません。

Takashi is a junior high school student in Nagoya. Last winter, he visited his grandfather's house in Kyoto with his sister Ayako.

First, their mother drove them to Nagoya Station. At the station, their mother said goodbye. Then Takashi and Ayako got on the Shinkansen.

A woman was sitting in Takashi's seat, so he spoke to her. The woman didn't understand Takashi's Japanese. So Takashi said in English, "Excuse me, this is my seat". Then the woman checked her ticket and said, "I'm sorry." Her seat was next to Takashi's seat.

The woman said, "my name is Mary. I'm from Australia. This is my first trip to Japan." Mary showed them some pictures of her family in Australia. Later, the three of them ate lunch together on the train.

When Takashi and Ayako got to their grandfather's house, Takashi called their mother and said, "we had a good trip and met a nice woman." Their mother was happy to hear that.

- (1) Who did Takashi go to Kyoto with?
- (2) How did Takashi go to Nagoya station?
- (3) Why did Takashi talk to Mary at first?
- (4) What did Mary show Takashi and Ayako?
- (5) What did Takashi do when he arrived at his grandfather's house?

これで放送を終わります。筆記試験を続けてください。
